

AC HOTELS MARRIOTT South San Francisco

The new AC Hotels Marriott is situated within a stone's throw of San Francisco, America's Biotech Capital and Silicon Valley, this prime Oyster Point location fronting the San Francisco Bay offers unparalleled access to the city and peninsula for business and travelers alike. The Building Program for this hotel calls for 175 guest rooms and 4,000 S.F. of meeting areas.

PROJECT TYPE HOTEL
STORIES 6
GUESTROOMS 175

The unique Oyster Cove waterfront site provides a spectacular site for the hotel and takes advantage of the green space by providing a friendly and comfortable water oriented solution that encourages hotel guests to engage in a variety of lifestyles as well as land and water based recreational amenities, while enjoying a drink or dining with immediate views of the water and distant views of the San Francisco Bay.

